

- a. Those women who are eligible and have applied for receiving benefits under SUBHADRA would have to ensure the following:
 - o a. They must have Aadhaar card / Aadhaar number in their own name.
 - o b. They must have linked their mobile number with the Aadhaar card.
 - o c. They must have a single-holder bank account that is Aadhaar-enabled and DBT-enabled.
- b. If the applicant does not have an Aadhaar number or there is data mismatch in her Aadhaar card, she will be required to enrol herself under Aadhaar or correct the information, as required.
- c. If the applicant does not have a single-holder Aadhaar-enabled & DBT-enabled bank account, she would be provided an opportunity for (a) opening a single holder bank account, (b) making the bank account Aadhaar-enabled, (c) making the bank account DBT-enabled and (d) completing the process for e-KYC.
- d. In 2024-25, all beneficiaries would receive the full benefit of Rs. 10,000 under SUBHADRA from the date of launch of the scheme, regardless of the date of approval.

3. Responsibilities of the Applicants / Beneficiaries

- a. All applicants / beneficiaries would be required to accept the obligations under SUBHADRA, as given below.
- b. To ensure efficient and transparent disbursement of benefits, applicants are required to complete the process of opening a single-holder bank account, enabling it for Aadhaar payment bridge system, direct benefit transfer (DBT), and completing the formalities for electronic Know Your Customer (e-KYC).
- c. Applicants must provide accurate and truthful information during the application process. If it is discovered at any point that a beneficiary was ineligible for the benefit, immediate termination of the benefit, recovery of any disbursed benefits, and legal or administrative actions for fraud will be undertaken.
- d. In the unfortunate instance of the demise of an approved beneficiary, the assistance approved shall be declared void, and the undisbursed benefit cannot be claimed on behalf of the deceased.
- e. The beneficiary/applicants may choose to opt out of the Scheme on the SUBHADRA Portal, as and when they become ineligible such as on getting employed in a Government job, improvement of economic condition of the household, etc.
- f. The beneficiaries are encouraged to undertake a higher number of transactions through online mode to enable them to receive further incentives as illustrated in the guideline.
- g. By applying under SUBHADRA or not opting out, the applicant agrees to provide consent for the use of their personal data, including Aadhaar by the scheme authorities for monitoring and evaluation purposes.
- h. In case of any overpayment due to administrative errors, beneficiaries are obligated to repay the excess amount on their own volition or as soon as it is identified and communicated to them by the authorities.